RE: RESENTMENT OVER STATEMENT MADE BY THE SHIV SENA CHIEF—contd.

SHRI VAYALAR RAVI (Kerala): Madam, the House is almost unanimously expressing its anguish and concern about the statement by Mr. Bal Thackeray, the boss of the Shiv Sena, which is part and parcel of the Government in Maharashtra. And I am more concerned about the statement of the Chief Minister himself.

Madam, my sympathies go to Mr. Sikander Bakht, the BJP leader, who tried to justify Mr. Bal Thackeray's statement and the support extended to it by the Chief Minister. Madam, Mr. Sikander Bakht was reading out the statement of the Chief Minister, and I want to read out the sentence next to the one where he stopped. There the Chief Minister says, "I shall be guided by them wherever necessary." What does it mean? It means, guided by the directions of Mr. Bal Thackeray. And he is not stopping there. Since everybody has expressed their opinion on the question of their alliance I do not want to go into the details. Then, the Chief Minister says, further, about the role of the Sainiks: "The role of the Sainiks would be merely to identify foreigners, to give information. The police would take action by initiating due process of law." I do not know when the Shiv Sainiks had taken the law into their hands. Even the Chief Minister has admitted that the Sainiks are going to every house of the minority community, knocking at their doors and asking, "Are you a foreigner or not?" And they are asking the police to take action. That means a new Sainik Administration. It is not a combination of the BJP and Shiv Sena but a mere Sainik Administration and a Sainik Government in the sense that a Sainik rule has come into existence in the city of Bombay. This is
